

EXCHANGE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF THE REPUBLIC (URUGUAY)
AND

The UNIVERSITY OF THE REPUBLIC OF URUGUAY and the UNIVERSITY OF.....

subscribe this agreement for the purpose of carrying out activities of mutual benefit where financially feasible and consistent with the policies of both institutions and all other applicable legislation :

1. The parties agree to establish formal institutional contacts to allow long term and short term exchanges of faculty members and postgraduate candidates in areas of mutual interest and expertise.

The activities contemplated may include, amongst others, the participation of postgraduate students in academic programmes of the other institution, faculty improvement leaves, research collaboration, visiting lecturing and exchange of bibliography.

2. In relation to exchange of faculty members the parties agree to provide to visiting faculty members the facilities normally required for effective working. The parties agree to inform each other about their priorities for each exchange and the names of the faculty members that will participate.

3. In relation to exchange of postgraduate students involving degree-granting programmes, the admission criteria will be set by the host departments. The participation in non-degree granting programmes and research projects or activities will be reviewed by the host institution.

4. The nomination of candidates for exchange activities will be accompanied by information of his/her educational background, current position, teaching and research experience, research proposals, etc. The nomination for exchange candidates may be made at any time, but not later than three months in advance of the beginning of the visit.

5. Funding for postgraduate students enrollments in degree-granting programmes, tuition and living expenses will be assumed by the organisation or organisations which award the scholarship or other financial assistance.

6. In relation to faculty members exchange both parties recognise that accompanying costs may not always be met by the host institution and agree to seek appropriate external funding to facilitate the implementation of this agreement.

7. It is understood that all financial arrangements will depend on the availability of funds. However, the parties agree to seek appropriate funding to facilitate the implementation of this agreement.

8. Upon being signed this agreement will remain in effect for three (3) years with the option of being extended, and may be modified, rescinded or declared null and void or altered by mutual agreement.
